SATURDAY MAY 17

Cambridge Transportation
History

Join the Cambridge Bicycle Committee for a leisurely ride through the streets of Cambridge as part of the city's annual GoGreen Month activities. The theme of this spring's bike tour is transportation history in Cambridge.

start: 10:15<sup>AM</sup> arrival at Cambridge Common 10:30<sup>AM</sup> ride starts

ends: Cambridge Common ride length: 11 miles

ride time: approx. 2 hours

We start at the Cambridge Common for a ride just over 11 miles long. The ride should take about two hours, and will include several intermediate stops for short theme-related talks. We'll end up at the brand new North Point park for a snack. After that, we'll lead those interested back to the starting point at the Cambridge Common (another 2.5 miles). The ride will be escorted by the Cambridge Police Department's Bike Patrol. Please arrive at the start by 10:15 for a 10:30 departure. Rain date May 18, same time. Announcements regarding rain will be sent to the ride email list and posted at www.cambridgebikes.org
