

The
CAMBRIDGE
Bow Tie

BIKE Ride!

WHEN: Sunday, Sept. 25, 2016

Meet at 9:30 AM

Ride departs at 10:00 AM

WHERE: Cambridge Main Library,
449 Broadway, Joan Lorenz Park

Ever notice that the City of Cambridge is shaped like a BOW TIE?

Join us and enter to win a FREE bow tie from OoOTie Boston Bow Ties!

(Psst - this red bow tie is a map of Cambridge!)

Enjoy a relaxed, scenic two-hour bike ride, traveling from west to east on a 12 mile route tracing the bowtie shaped boundaries of the city.

This will be a gorgeous autumn ride at an easy pace on mostly level terrain.

Everyone is invited to untie with us post-ride at the launch site (Cambridge Main Library).

Technical support for the ride provided by Cannondale Sports Store and Urban Adventours. Mechanics will be on hand for simple bike checks; you can come early to have your tire air checked or for other simple bike adjustments. Snacks and post-ride food donated by Trader Joe's, Chipotle, and the Middle East Restaurant. Bow-tying demo and free bow tie give-away by OoOTie. Ride organized by the Cambridge Bicycle Committee: www.cambridgebikes.org

WEAR A BOW TIE, OR COME AS YOU ARE!

For more details and answers to questions: www.cambridgebikes.org

Thanks to our sponsors:

